Living Countryside Awards 2021 – Nomination Form

General guidance

Previous nominees (including award winners) are welcome to reapply but should clearly show how they have progressed or developed since their last application.

Projects should fall, or have a significant impact, within the county of Bedfordshire.

You may nominate your own project or one you know of but please get the project managers permission first

Projects can take any form, including businesses, charities, voluntary or community groups, schools, clubs and individuals.

We may use submitted photographs and quotes from your written material on our website and social media channels to help promote the awards. By submitting your form you are agreeing to CPRE Bedfordshire using your information in this way. Personal email addresses and other contact details will not be made public. If you have any questions about how we will use the information you submit please contact awards@cprebeds.org.uk

Finalists will be filmed as part of the process.
